

LAS VEGAS CENTRAL OFFICE SEEKS VOLUNTEERS FOR NOMINATING COMMITTEE

The Las Vegas AA Central Office Board of Directors is seeking volunteers from the Fellowship to serve on the newly formed Nominating Committee for the 2026 Board election process.

The purpose of the committee is to support the annual election of the Board of Directors by helping identify, encourage, and review qualified candidates in accordance with the Las Vegas Intergroup Bylaws and election procedures. The committee will assist with outreach, candidate communications, verification of qualifications, and preparation of election materials for the annual Representatives Meeting in November.

The committee will consist of four Board members and five Fellowship members. Volunteers should have an interest in AA service, be willing to participate in committee discussions, and work cooperatively with others in support of the election process.

Committee outreach begins in June and resumes from interested Fellowship members will be accepted through July 31, 2026.

AA members interested in volunteering are encouraged to submit a brief AA service resume including sobriety date, home group, AA service experience, and any relevant professional or nonprofit experience.
